GET A LITTLE ELBOW ROOM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

---

BRADLEY BEACH: The Elbow Room Bar + Kitchen is now open at 416 Main Street, Bradley Beach, New Jersey, according Richard Santore of Bielat Santore & Company, Allenhurst, New Jersey, who brokered the transaction. Business partners Jay Vacchiano, executive chef Dino Fornicola, and general manager, Madelyn Snow have all been in the restaurant industry starting at a very young age. Vacchiano who has been in the business for over 15 years, realized his dream just a few years ago when he opened his first restaurant, the Bar Room in Deal, New Jersey. Madelyn Snow has direct ties to the new Bradley Beach location. Her parents the Caporaso's, owned a former restaurant at the same address, the Draughting Table, for more than a decade before retiring.

When asked how the name was chosen, Vacchiano replied; "We were simply outgrowing the Bar Room and needed a little more "Elbow Room." The new restaurant will replicate the same great food and service at the Bar Room. The menu will also be similar but expanded to include a few new specialty dishes to coincide with exceptional cocktail offerings. The Elbow Room is a great local bar, as Vacchiano describes it; "A casual neighborhood place where you can always get great food and great service. We want the Elbow Room to be the go-to place!" When dining out you can enjoy everything from a hearty burger to delish braised short-ribs to pappardelle Bolognese; there really is something for everyone on the menu, with very reasonable pricing as well.

The Elbow Room Bar + Kitchen is open every day except Tuesday, from 4:00pm to close. The Elbow Room will also be opening for brunch on Sundays and lunch in the near future.
